I Just wanted you to Comfort me
when I called you late last night you see

I was falling into love

yes I was crashing into Love

Oh, of all the words you said to me

About Life, the Truth and being free yeah you sang to me oh how you sang to me

Girl, I live for how you make me feel

SO I question all this being real

'Cause I'm not afraid to love

For the first time I'm not afraid to love

Oh, this day seems made for you and me

And you showed me what life needs to be yeah you sang to me

Oh you sang to me

All the while you were in front of me I never realized
I just can't believe I didn't see it in your eyes
I didn't see it
I can't believe it
Oh but I feel it
when you sing to me

How I long to hear you sing beneath the clear blue skies
And I promise you this time I'll see it in your eyes
I didn't see it
I can't believe it
Oh but I feel it
When you sing to me live inside of me
Just to think you live how this could be
I had no idea

Now I'm crazy for your love
Can't believe I'm crazy for your love

The words you said just sang to me
And you showed me where I want to you sang to me
Oh you sang to me ...

I love you but I feel it is not enough.
I always wanted to live a love story and after all these years I finally found it.

You are my story and I'll never give up on it.
I'll fight for you because I do love you.
My love for you is true, pure and above all materialistic things.

I spent many nights awake thinking about you

I look at your picture and I feel my heart go so fast, I feel I want to cry on your shoulder
My breath becomes harder and my body is trembling.

I don't have a different explanation to this, except is I'm in love with you.

Your love is giving me strange power and is making me brave, also reckless and I want to go out there and scream telling everyone

"I love you" 🍷💕

Today you asked me a question "do you feel that I lead you on?"

And you know what.. I don't care so as long
I'm close to you...

It hurts to think of you as a person who can do that because I don't believe that you as a beautiful person could do that to anyone...

But..

I love being close to you and if that's the only way, it's fine but don't tell me about

please!

Lead me on

The first time I saw you in my office, I fell in love immediately, my heart starts to beat fast and when we shook hands, I had a strange feeling of love all over my body... I wanted to hug you and say it loud & here she is, I finally found her!!
I knew it's you from that day, something is your eyes, in your smile, may be in the way you talked attracted me... your eyes are pulling me deep inside, they are driving me crazy every time I look at them.
from that day, I knew I'll fight for you no matter what I just wanted you to stay and to work together
* you've got my head spinning, no kidding

I love you

I'm in love with you

• I watched the movie "Heat" and I found the right words I was looking for in that movie not describe my life when I met you ...
Neil McCauley "Robert De Niro" said to Eady "Amy Brenneman" =

"The last thing I am is married. I'm a needle starting at zero, going the other way, a double blank and then some one like you, comes along"

It took me a while to understand what he meant. This describes my life. Like a thermometer getting colder and colder below zero, freezing even.

"Double blank" = something you say to exaggerate that you really got nothing left at all.
I found "Heat" and warmth back in my life when you showed up.

Love you

what would I do without your smart mouth?
Drawing me in, and you kicking me out

you've got my head spinning, no kidding
I can't pin you down

what is going on in that beautiful mind?

I'm on your magical mystery ride

And I'm so dizzy, don't know what hit me
but I'll be alright

My head's underwater but I'm breathing fine
you're crazy and I'm out of my mind

Cause all of me ... Loves all of you
Love your curves and all your edges
All your perfect imperfections

Give your all to me
I'll give my all to you

you're my end and my beginning
Even when I lose I'm winning

Cause I give you all of me
and you give me all of you, oh

Even when you're crying you're beautiful too

The world is beating you down, I'm around through every mood

you're my downtell, you're my muse

My worst distraction, my rhythm and blues

I can't stop saying, it's ringing, in my head for you

Cards on the table, we are both showing hearts
Risking it all, though it's hard

Cause all of me

 loves all of you

• I hate Fridays and I love Mondays

I hate Fridays because it is the last day of the week and I will not see you for an entire 48 hrs

I love Mondays because it brings you back to me.

• My only help on the weekends is your picture. I look at you and it helps me to go through these difficult hours.

• I wake up every morning thinking of you. I can't wait to bring your coffee and breakfast every morning...

I found in them excuses to see you early in the day.

In fact I try to find ~~excuses~~ every thing to call you, to talk to you and to see you...

• I love your texts, I love to talk to you, to listen to your lovely voice...

I know it will not be too long before everyone knows but I really don't care about anybody else...

• why are you so perfect?

- I'm amazed when I look at you. Not just because of your looks, But because of the fact that everything I've ever wanted is right in front of me.

- Never in a million years did I think I'd find someone so utterly and completely perfect, someone who would make me happier than I ever dreamed I could be. Someone that would touch my life so profoundly and just give me a whole new reason to breathe. But then I found you and realized that everything I anticipated you to be doesn't even compare to who you are.

- you're my definition of perfect

you are my best friend,
my human diary
and my other half.
you mean the world to me and

I love you

• You are the last thing on my mind every night and you are the first one to fill my thought every morning. Every day is like a blessing because I know that I get to wake up knowing that I'll see you and I'll talk to you.

Love me even more, even more
 Oh my most beautiful fit of madness, even more

Love me even more
 Drawn me even more, my lady, the sea is calling
 me
 Kill me even more, may be death would be my rebirth

Oh most beautiful woman in the universe, love me
 Oh you whom I loved until love burned, love
 me

If you're looking for somewhere to stay, I'd have you reside in the light of my eyes

Your love is my map, the map of the universe
 no longer matters to me

I'm the oldest capital of sadness and my wound is a pharaonic inscription

My pain extends like a flock of birds from Baghdad to China

My heart's Canary my April
 Oh you're the sands of the sea and the soul of my soul, forests of olives
 A taste of snow and a taste of fire and a flavor
 of my doubt and certainty

I feel scared of the unknown so shelter me.

September 18th

September 20 - The worst day of my life
The day you returned everything to me.

The day you were angry with me in a war
I never saw it before.

I never saw it before.

you just broke me forever — o o o o o

But I still do I will always love you o o o

Exhibit C

First I don't want our conversation today to come across as I'm still trying. So please let me finish all what I need to say. I learned long time ago not to have this kind of conversation with someone who is angry or upset and especially if that someone means a lot to me because it always goes bad. So I wanted things to cool off a bit before I talk to you and the other day I was in a hurry to catch my flight so it did not seem to be the right time either but I don't like to leave things unsolved or pending like that. So consider this is my last talk to you about this subject. I also hate flying, so you never know may be I'll never see you again either, that's why I really wanted to finish these issues today...

I also spent a fair amount of time thinking about what I'm going to say to you today because I it is hard for me.

Something happened the other day made me think, really think about what happened. I was buying my usual morning coffee and you know what the guy told me: "Just the mocha, no cold press today?"... This made me sad, really sad that things between us changed that much that quickly.

So I start thinking in the last few days how and why this happened? Again, please I'm not here asking you to rethink or change your mind. You pretty much made it clear to me what your decision was. And I'm the one to blame. Before I left to Toronto, I asked you if you wanted to return the ring and you said no because you loved it. But I told you to take your time and think about it before you make your decision. When I was there we were texting and you asked me how I feel about next week, and I told you I'm afraid of coming back. You know why? Because I was terrified of you returning my gift back. When the following week came, I was terrified every single day, almost no sleep as I expect the next day morning you're giving everything back to me and when the week was almost over, I was so happy that things stayed the same. But anyway, may be I screwed things up when I texted you that weekend but I'm sure you understand why I had to do that. Anyway by returning my gifts, in my mind this was very insulting to me and I'll never forget that but I understand what you're going through. While this never happened to me before, it really affected me a lot. I can't delete your upset angry image from my head and I don't think I'll ever be able to. It was just one of the worst days I've been through lately. But anyway, I guess time to move on...

Yesterday morning you were angry during rounds, upset as if I'm attacking you with my questions or comments. You even told me that "I'm trying to get you in trouble" which was really shocking to me. Is that what you really thinking-after all this-or you were just upset of something else. Because I'm the last person to get you in trouble, I'm your real supporter here if not the only one who actually has your back and this will not change

Then I looked at you yesterday afternoon, doing all this great work with patients and multitasking millions of things at the same time: PD drain, taking sutures out, placing wound VAC, changing dressing, closing an incision plus all other patient care stuff and I was impressed with how good your work is and I would love for this to continue..

But since our last conversation, I noticed several things that changed in you and I will tell you what I've seen and correct me if I'm wrong or just paranoid:

You used to follow-up before you leave the hospital about all patients, you stopped, in fact you did not even tell me the other day that you were leaving, I'm not asking you to take my permission, but

I'm just saying you've changed. You even used to ask me about the patients on the weekend, you used to be on top of everything and having control over everything but I don't feel you are yourself anymore. You start talking like others. When asked you while I'm in Florida, to call Ms. Reisdorf to change her surgical date...I never expected you will say "I can't.", you were always on top of these things, you didn't even try and you told me that she doesn't have a phone or whatever reason it is... Although Rachel was able to get hold of her right away. Remember when you changed my clinic and OR cases one day for so I can do a baby case without me even telling you what needs to be done. And I was impressed that you thought about this immediately. This is Rebecca that I know... The TEE report on Lauren Woods, you would have sent it to me by email like you used to and you didn't. You've changed and I hate to see you changed.

Words like: "I can't. It is not my job, I'm just the messenger, I'm just telling you..." you know how much these words affect me? It makes me upset and especially when it comes from someone like you. I never expected these words will come out of your mouth one day because I know it is not you who is talking.

I don't want you to change from someone who loves doing her job to someone who is just doing her job like everyone else. I don't see your heart at work anymore which makes me sad. You seem frustrated and a bit angry, so please go back to Rebecca that I know.

Do you remember one day when you sent me a message telling me that a long line of people are waiting to wipe out when they were leaving. Waiting for the clock to hit 5:00 exactly? You were laughing at that because you never did it. You never thought about your time here because you loved your job and I don't want this to change. I'm not asking you to stay late, you are free to do whatever you want but I'm just telling you what I've noticed.

Rebecca, I don't want things at work to change between us. We have been working together for a good period of time now and we can't ignore each other. I want you to continue doing your great work and I want to teach you everything I know and I will continue to help you. What you've said to me will not change this if that's what you are worried about.

I don't want to leave bad memories in any one's head and especially you. You are very talented, and smart. You are one of the few people that I've met who can multitask successfully and you can do more and more great work and we have a lot to do. I'm always proud of you and I love this work relationship to continue. We have a lot to produce and you've a lot of potentials to be great one day. I want you to succeed because this will make me happy.

Anything else, it is my personal life and I will deal with it. It has nothing to do with you. I hope these words help clarifying things a bit more and at the end it is your decision.

So Thank you for all your help and for all what you do.....

Travel Card

Scope

This policy applies to all Mayo Clinic employees.

Purpose

The Supply Chain Management (SCM) Corporate Travel Credit Card (travel card) is designed for use by Mayo Clinic students, voting staff, residents, and employees who travel for Mayo Clinic business purposes. It may also be used for non-travel related business expense as defined in this policy. This policy ensures that Mayo Clinic employees adhere to federal, legal and financial requirements to avoid severe penalties.

Policy

- The travel card is the property of Mayo Clinic and is required to be used for all Mayo Clinic business related travel expense.
- The cardholder and their Manager/Supervisor are responsible for ensuring that all purchases are for legitimate business needs and are in compliance with all Mayo Clinic Policies and Procedures.
- Application for the travel card requires authorization by the applicant's direct supervisor or an administrator. The supervisor may assign any of the below available credit limits up to the maximum allowed for the cardholder's category:

- Federal law requires the financial institution supporting the travel card to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. To process the application, the financial institution must have your name, street address, date of birth and other identifying information. The financial institution may ask for identifying documents from you as well.
- Cards are issued in an individual's name; however, its use does not affect personal credit or utilize personal credit scores. Sharing cards is prohibited.
- Cardholders are responsible for all charges on the travel card. Per IRS guidelines, reimbursement of business expense after 90 days will be taxable to the cardholder.
- Cardholders are responsible for reconciling charges on the card in a timely manner (recommended within 14 days) after the charge was incurred.
- The reconciliation process must include correctly identifying all charges as either business or personal expense.

- Cardholders must provide any required supporting documentation through the SCM approved mechanism.
- The following are examples of unacceptable uses of the travel card. This list does not include all potentially unacceptable transactions.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Cash ◦ Gift Cards ◦ Products and services (including but not limited to: capital equipment, medical supplies, office equipment, and office supplies) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Computer hardware or software – unless otherwise specified by policy such as Dues and Professional Reimbursement Policy

- Balance for non-reimbursed expenses placed on the card must be paid in full within 30 days of the expenditure directly to Bank of America by the cardholder.
- Any misuse and/or abuse will be documented and may result in:
 - Notification to Manager/Supervisor
 - Suspension of card privileges
 - Termination of card privileges
 - Formal corrective action up to and including termination; as determined by the employee's leadership and Human Resources Service Partner.
- Cardholders and their Manager/Supervisors are required to respond promptly to Supply Chain Audit and Controls requests for documentation or clarification of any purchase made with the card.
- If a cardholder's travel card is closed for violation of policy, any unpaid balance at the time the card is closed will be charged to the cardholder's department account and reported as taxable income to the cardholder. It is the responsibility of the cardholder to notify SCM of any payments to the department that decrease the taxable amount. To request a replacement credit card, an SCM policy exception, requesting reinstatement, must be submitted and approved by immediate supervisor. The account must be at a $0.00 balance for 30 days before submitting a policy exception. After review and approval by SCM, a new card may be issued.
- Cardholder must surrender the travel card to their immediate supervisor prior to departure of employment.
- Cardholders are personally responsible for all late payment fees.

Procedure

1. The potential cardholder submits an application electronically and acknowledges the terms & conditions.
2. The application is forwarded to their direct supervisor for review and approval. By authorizing this application, the direct supervisor or administrator confirms that this employee is in good standing with Mayo Clinic. In addition, this approval indicates the employee is aware of the requirements and limitations that Mayo Clinic has placed upon the travel card and will travel on behalf of the organization.
3. Once the application is approved by the direct supervisor or administrator, the application is routed to the Mayo Clinic Corporate Credit Card team for review and action.
4. The Corporate Credit Card team reviews the application to ensure requested use is in compliance with Policy. If the application is approved by the Corporate Card team, the card will be ordered and sent directly to the cardholder's home address within 10-14 business days.
5. Once received, the cardholder is able to use the card as described in this policy.
6. The cardholder will reconcile the card transactions and attach the required supporting documentation within a timely manner in the SCM approved mechanism.
7. The cardholder will pay the credit card provider directly for any personal portions within 30 days of the expenditure.
8. Regular audits of purchases will be conducted by Supply Chain Audit and Controls and cardholders will be contacted as necessary to ensure compliance with all appropriate policies and processes.
9. Any questions or concerns with the card can be directed to Supply Chain Management Customer Support at 507-266-5551 during normal business hours of 7AM – 5PM CST Monday - Friday.

Secret santa is a game where you exchange names with people in the office and secretly get them gifts throughout the week and place them on their desk without them knowing. They are supposed to try and figure out who their "secret santa" is. The last day of the week, normally people give the biggest gift (up to $15)

Dear colleagues,

I suggested to Nadine and Melody we (on a voluntary basis) be included to the Secret Santa this year with our office staff. I think it would promote camaraderie and positive spirit within our group.

Here are the details for everyone who would like to be involved.

Gift Price Range: $10.00-$15.00

We will pick names Thursday, November 16th

We will do the exchange on the week of December 4-8th.

We came up with two options: You can give one gift for your Secret Santa on December 8th or you can give small gifts each day.

If you could type a note with hints along with your gift about yourself so your Secret Santa can try to guess who you are.

Bringing the Christmas spirit, Excitement and Laughter to CVS!!!

I will have printed copies to fill during department meeting, or please feel free to complete online and send to me.

Cheers.

Re: Workplace Sexual Harassment

Dear Colleagues,

Thank you for the discussion at the Department Chairs meeting this week. In response to ongoing media coverage related to sexual harassment, we are reminding all staff and leaders about Mayo's core values.

1. Our responsibility as leaders is to ensure a safe working environment for all of our staff, such that they can complete their professional duties without fear of discrimination, harassment or retaliation.
2. If you hear about issues related to mutual respect or sexual harassment, please contact the Personnel Committee Chair or Secretary for guidance. It is important that we report all incidents and situations so we can understand Mayo Clinic's overall status on this matter.
3. We have strong policies and processes in place to address issues that arise. Please take the time to review these as it will likely address many questions on this topic. Equal Employment and Affirmative Action, Sexual and Other Harassment; Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy. The Corrective Action policy is another reference, though may not be applicable to all matters as many times a collegial conversation is appropriate. Corrective Action
4. We desire a professional and safe environment. Professional and personal boundaries must be respected. Striking the balance of collegiality and professionalism is our responsibility as chairs and leaders. Attached is a link to an article in the Wall Street Journal that was published recently. <https://www.wsj.com/articles/is-office-romance-still-allowed-1512144685>
5. We are reviewing our training materials and content to ensure they are robust and contemporary.

Do not hesitate to contact me as the Rochester Personnel Committee Chair or Stephanie Wendorff, Secretary, Personnel Committee with questions or requests for consultations.

Because you're acting like a teenager and trying to make me feel bad for what I did. I have no shame, people go to parties where they don't know anyone and end up having to sit by themselves. I did it at a lot of grad parties and baby/bridal showers. Your mind must just think differently

I'm done arguing

Like I said, I don't go or accept friend requests from any one I don't know but I did it because of you, so stop that bull
shitt that you're trying to say

I didn't know anyone in that freaking party, so I was not going to push myself and sit with people that I don't know but you treated me like shitty there and you embarrassed me, but I learned the lesson

I was just too respectful to you but I shouldn't have been

Subject: Cicek case today

Hi Jon and Frank

The case that was done today is a disaster by all means. This is a straightforward conduit change and it has to be a 100% success but for a poor little girl to end up with a mechanical truncal valve and a thrombosed femoral artery requiring vascular surgery intervention in addition to more than two hours of circulatory arrest and on ECMO with Pulmonary hemorrhage because of a lousy surgeon is not acceptable in my mind.

First the plan when the case was discussed on Monday is just conduit change and that's why we discuss these cases so the plan stays the same. Second, this guy Cicek can't just bring kids here to operate upon and we pay the price of his complications.

Something needs to change and we can't afford losing a kid in a straightforward operation as you all know. We are just recovering from Bassem Mora era that Dearani put the program in it and we can't go back there again.

Thanks

Sameh

Subject: RE: Timecard

I don't know how else to verify but here are my sent emails from yesterday and the times. There should be a gap around 11am when I said I was going to log off and work on Dr. Said's CV and trips which I only did for like 25 minutes. I took a quick lunch and didn't log back in to the laptop right away as you'll see I sent his trip list to myself prior to logging off in the morning so called a hotel to book a room for a trip for Dr. Said then I updated the dot calendars for both surgeons trips. It started to rain here about 12:45 so I went down to the lodge for the rest of the evening and during that time, made 2 other hotel reservations, reserved flights for his Mayo Clinic FL rotation, and finalized things for his trip to Toronto in September.

Can we discuss this further when I return? I feel like I'm not trusted and usually am accused of doing something wrong while away on vacation.

Thanks,

Rachel
